Failure to run an open and honest government by concealing critical information from the public and putting the City of Lakeside in jeopardy. Failure to conduct meetings in a productive manner. Failure to represent all citizens by choosing to represent only a select few. Providing false information to be published and thereby creating chaos and a lack of confidence in the governing of the city. Abuse of power by authorizing contracted services without obtaining competitive bids or a vote of the council. Opposition with the newly elected officials in their attempt to pursue the lawful governing of the city.
